

Cookie Policy

This website, <https://garagenorte.es> (hereinafter the "Website") uses tools to track navigation through it and the IP address of the recipient of the service, in order to improve and guarantee the provision of services or its technical operation, distinguish you from other users and analyze your browsing habits.

The purpose of this cookie policy is to inform you clearly and precisely about the operation and uses of the cookies we use.

What are "Cookies"?

According to art. 22.2 of Law 34/2002, of July 11, on information society services and electronic commerce, cookies are any type of data storage and recovery device used on a user's terminal equipment with the purpose of storing information and recovering information already stored.

Cookies allow a website to recognize a user's device, facilitating navigation, remembering their preferences and, in general, improving the user's experience, helping to offer information and services related to their interests. Cookies do not store sensitive information about the user, such as credit cards or bank details, photographs, ID or personal information, etc.

Current law allows us to store cookies on your device if they are strictly necessary for the operation of this page. Thus, for all other types of cookies we need permission.

What types of Cookies exist?

Next, we inform our users that this website uses different types of cookies that can be classified as follows:

Types of cookies according to the entity that manages them:

- Own Cookies. They are cookies generated by the website you are visiting.
- Third party Cookies. They are cookies generated by third-party services and are hosted on our website.

Types of cookies according to their duration:

- Session Cookies. They are those designed to collect and store data while the user accesses a web page, which are not recorded on the user's disk.
- Persistent Cookies. They are those in which the data is stored in the terminal and can be accessed and processed during a period defined by the person responsible for the cookie.

Types of Cookies according to their finality:

- Technical Cookies. They are those that allow the user to navigate through our website and use the different options or services that exist on it, therefore, they are also called "strictly necessary".
- Personalization Cookies. They are those that make it possible to remember information so that each user can access the service according to their preferences (language, region from which they access the website or result number to be displayed when a search is performed, for example).

- Analysis and performance. They are those that allow us to track and analyze the behavior of users on the website anonymously (number of visits or navigation criteria, for example).
- Behavioral advertising Cookies. They are those that allow information about user behavior to be stored in order to implement efficiency parameters in the advertising offered on web pages.

Google reCaptcha

We use "Google reCAPTCHA" (hereinafter "reCAPTCHA") on our website. With reCAPTCHA we check whether it is a person or a computer who makes certain entries in our contact or newsletter forms. With reCAPTCHA we will counteract the increase in machine registrations in user accounts and newsletters.

Currently, reCAPTCHA is the best protection against such attacks (bot attacks). As soon as you access the website, reCAPTCHA analyzes your interactions using the following features:

- IP address of the terminal device used.
- Date and time spent on the website.
- Mouse movements on reCAPTCHA surfaces and tasks requiring image identification.
- Identification data of the browser and the type of operating system used.

- Google account, if you are signed in to Google.

The data collected during the analysis is sent to Google. According to Google's instructions, Google does not use the information collected by reCAPTCHA for personalized advertising.

Google Maps

The Google Maps service is also used on our website. Thanks to this service we can show you an interactive map with our location directly on the website, which allows you to comfortably use the map function.

As soon as you click on our address in the map navigation embedded on our website, Google Maps will open in a new tab. Please note that you are subject to the Other Terms of Use of Google Maps / Google Earth, including Google's Data Protection Declaration, if you use Google Maps.

How can I uninstall the Cookies?

The user, on their first access to the website, can configure and accept or reject cookies on this Website. Subsequently, the user may, at any time, change or withdraw their consent through this Cookies Policy or configure their browser.

Major browsers have options for blocking and deleting cookies, but the procedure may differ from browser to browser. To uninstall cookies, we recommend following the instructions provided by the manufacturer of the user's Internet browser.

In the case of mobile devices, it is common for the browser to have these options in the Settings section.

However, it should be noted that setting the browser to reject cookies will not allow the user's preferences to be maintained and some pages may not be available.

Modifications of Cookies Policy

The Website reserves the right to modify this Cookies Policy, always in the terms permitted by current Spanish legislation. Therefore, we recommend that you review this policy each time you access our website for appropriate updates and information.

Personal Data Protection

The cookies used on the website allow us to collect information about the user, their preferences or their device, allowing the website to function correctly; without sensitive information being collected. For better information about the processing of your personal data, visit our Privacy Policy.
